I.

INTRODUCTION

As best as Defendant San Diego Police Officer Keffer can tell, Plaintiff brings this instant case as a result of an apparent dispute regarding ownership of real property located as 1224 Weaver Street, San Diego, California. As alleged by Plaintiff, Seminole Mortgage was the legal owner of the property and sold the property to Plaintiff on April 10, 2008. (Complaint 4:18-22; 5:17-20). Prior to Plaintiff's purchase of the property, First Federal Bank apparently claimed an interest in the real property and carried out a foreclosure and trustee sale of the property on June 14, 2007. (Complaint 5:6-10) For reasons not ascertainable from the Complaint, Plaintiff now complains that "First Federal Bank want [sic] the money from the judgment and or the Insurance Policy they obtained but also wants to steal the property from the new Owner Keith Spencer who is not a party to their previous foreclosure or trustee dealings." (Complaint 5:20-23).

Defendant Officer Keffer is sued herein by Plaintiff in this instant action. However, from the Complaint, it is unclear what role Defendant Officer Keffer had in the acts complained of. Nor is it clear from the Complaint, what claim for relief Plaintiff seeks against Defendant Officer Keffer in this action. Moreover, from the Complaint, it is unknown at this time whether this Court even has jurisdiction. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Complaint lacks a clear and concise statement of the relief sought and a clear and concise statement of the facts upon which relief is claimed, which causes Defendant Officer Keffer to bring this instant motion.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. Legal Standard of Review

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 12(b)(6) ("Rule 12(b)(6)") provides that a complaint may be dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. A Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss tests the sufficiency of the complaint. (Ilets v. Glock, Inc., 349 F.3d 1191, 1199-1200 (9th Cir. 2003)). Generally, a complaint may be dismissed as a matter of law for two reasons: (1) lack of cognizable legal theory, or (2) insufficient facts under a cognizable theory. (Navarro v. Block, 250 F.3d 729-732 (9th Cir. 2001)). Rule 12(b)(6) also "authorizes a court to dismiss a claim on the basis of a dispositive issue of law." (Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 326 (1989); see also, Parks School of Business, Inc. v. Symington, 51 F.3d 1480, 1484 (9th Cir. 1995), "[a] dismissal for failure to state a claim pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) is a ruling on a question of law . . . .") For purposes of a motion to dismiss, well-pleaded factual allegations of the complaint are generally presumed to be true. (California Motor Transport Co. v. Trucking Unlimited, 404 U.S. 508, 515 (1972)). However, conclusions of law or unwarranted deductions of fact or arguments are not sufficient to state a claim. (Frederiksen v. Poloway, 637 F.2d 1147, 1150 n.1 (7th Cir. 1981), cert. denied, 451 U.S. 1017).

As will be shown below in Section B, infra, Plaintiff's purported claim for relief against Defendant Officer Keffer fails as insufficient facts have been pled under a cognizable theory.

B. Plaintiff's Complaint Does Not Comply with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 8

Fed. Rules of Civ. Proc. Rule 8 states in pertinent part:

1 A pleading that states a claim for relief must contain:

2 (1) a short and plain statement of the grounds for the court's jurisdiction, unless 3 the court already has jurisdiction and the claim needs no new jurisdictional support;

4 (2) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to 5 relief; and

6 (3) a demand for the relief sought, which may include relief in the alternative or different types of relief.

7 The only pleading requirements under the Federal Rules is that the averments "be simple,
8 concise, and direct." (McHenry v. Renne 84 F.3d 1172, 1177 (1996)). Even under this pleading
9 standard, as will be shown below, Defendant Officer Keffer is unclear as to the claims being pled
10 against him and the basis for said claims.

11 This is because Plaintiff's Complaint contains none of the required elements for a claim
12 for relief. Specifically, nowhere in Plaintiff's Complaint can Defendant Officer Keffer find a 13 short and plain statement of the grounds for this Court's jurisdiction. Indeed, diversity 14 jurisdiction would probably be lacking between Plaintiff and this responding defendant. Nor,
15 does Plaintiff's Complaint contain a short and plain statement of the claim showing that Plaintiff
16 is entitled to any type of relief from Defendant Officer Keffer. The only allegation against 17 Defendant Officer Keffer is that at 10:30 p.m. on May 24, 2008, Defendant Officer Keffer went 18 to the address of the real property in dispute and stated the he "recently got a phone call from 19 someone and that Alleged [sic] the property was owned by the Bank and no one is supposed to be 20 here and that I've been out here before for an eviction." (Complaint 12:1-6). Apparently,
21 Defendant Officer Keffer's presence at the property caused "extreme anxiety for plaintiff's wife,
22 family and himself" which caused them fear that their safety may be in jeopardy as Defendant
23 Officer Keffer appeared at the property "during Klu Klux Klan hours and not lawful business 24 hours." (Complaint 12:21-25). Finally, Plaintiff does not seem to make any intelligible claim for 25 relief against Defendant Officer Keffer. Because of this, Defendant Officer Keffer cannot 26 surmise what claim for relief Plaintiff makes against him and the basis for said claim for relief.

CONCLUSION

As shown above, Plaintiff's Complaint lacks a clear and concise statement of the relief requested and the basis for said relief. Accordingly, Defendant Officer Keffer requests that this Court dismiss said Complaint, or in the alternative, require Plaintiff to file an amended complaint that complies with FRCP Rule 8.
